Note

The effect of adding this provision to be Sub-section (2) bis of Section 7 of the Penal Code is that the amendment will expand the extraterritorial jurisdiction of Thailand to cover the offences provided in Section 282 and Section 283, because Section 7 of the Penal Code states:

Section 7

Whoever commits the following offences outside the Kingdom shall be punished in the Kingdom, namely:

- (1) Offences relating to the Security of the Kingdom as provided in Section 107 to Section 129
- (2) Offences relating to Counterfeiting and Alteration as provided in Sections 240 to 249, 254, 256, 257 and 266 (3) and (4)
- (3) Offences relating to Robbery as provided in Section 339, and offences relating to Gang-Robbery as provided in Section 340, which is committed on the high seas.

Adding Sub-section (2) bis into Section 7, therefore, means Thailand can prosecute every offender who procures, lures, or traffics an adult or child of both sex for an indecent sexual act for sexual gratification of another person, no matter where the offence is committed, and what nationality the offender is. This amendment shows the policy and perception of Thailand that these offences are universal and very serious crimes. Another sexual offence that Thailand has extraterritorial jurisdiction over is Rape offence as provided in Section 8 of the Penal Code.
