

Act Restoring Status of Civil, Military or Police Officers Acting against Japan during Wartime, B.E. 2489 (1946)

Translation

ANANDA MAHIDOL.

ENACTED UNDER OUR HAND THIS 8TH DAY OF MAY, BUDDHIST ERA 2489 (1946);

BEING THE 13TH YEAR OF OUR REIGN.

His Majesty King Ananda Mahidol is graciously pleased to proclaim that:

Whereas it is desirable to restore the status of the civil, military or police officers who acted against Japan during wartime, in order to grant them an amnesty pursuant to the Act Amnestying Persons Acting Against Japan during Wartime, Buddhist Era 2489 (1946);

Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the House of Representatives, as follows:

Section 1

This Act shall be cited as the "Act Restoring Status of Civil, Military or Police Officers Acting against Japan during Wartime, B.E. 2489 (1946)".

Section 2

This Act shall come into force upon its publication in the Government Gazette.^[1]

Section 3

In order to conform to the Act Amnestying Persons Acting Against Japan during Wartime, Buddhist Era 2489 (1946), any civil, military or police officer who has acted against Japan during wartime or has undertaken any action for such purpose and has resigned or dismissed from office shall be instated in his former office by the Minister in charge of such office; prescribed that the office is vacant.

If the officer may not be instated in his former office, he shall be instated in another office, class and rank not lower than his former one.

Section 4

Prior to the instatement under Section 3, the responsible Minister shall make certain that the resignation or dismissal of the officer in question is actually in consequence of the latter's act against Japan during wartime or undertaking of any action for such purpose, even the grounds for resignation or dismissal are otherwise indicated in the letter thereof.

Section 5

The civil, military or police officer instated pursuant to this Act shall be deemed to have been in office continuously, that is, the period prior to his resignation or dismissal and the period from and after his instatement shall be one and be included in a period of his annuity, gratuity or pension.

Section 6

The Prime Minister shall be in charge of this Act.

Countersigned by:
Mr.Pridi PHANOMYONG,
Prime Minister.
